

2009 Fattoria Lavacchio Chianti Rufina Ludiè

Rating	Price	Drink Date	This is a new, single-vineyard wine that is released seven years after the harvest. The vines were planted in 1963 with a special clone of Sangiovese. It shows a dark, inky black appearance with syrupy notes of Asian spice, dried plum and black olive. Its texture is super rich and concentrated. This is a worthwhile and distinctive expression of Sangiovese that speaks to the unique growing conditions of the Chianti Rufina appellation. But I can't promise that it will appeal to all (and that high price tag is a liability for those willing to give it a try).
